

salvation

Jesus rescuing people.

sacrifice

Jesus' giving up his life for others.

resurrection

Coming back alive.

incarnation

God in human form; God in the flesh.

What difference does the resurrection make to Christians?

Christians believe the 'big story' of the Bible is the need for God to save people.

Salvation includes restoring the relationship between God and humans.

Outcomes

- Outline the timeline of the 'big story' of the Bible, explaining the place within it of Incarnation and Salvation.
- Suggest meanings for resurrection accounts and compare with the way Christians interpret these texts.
- Explain connections between Luke 24 and the Christian concepts of Sacrifice, Resurrection, Salvation, Incarnation and Hope using theological terms.
- Show how Christians put their beliefs into practice in different ways.
- Explain why some people find belief in the resurrection makes sense and inspires them.
- What difference does belief in the resurrection make today?

The Gospels give accounts of Jesus' life, death and resurrection.

Belief in Jesus' resurrection confirms to Christians that Jesus is the incarnate Son of God.

Christians believe that death is not the end.

The belief in the resurrection gives Christians hope for life with God, starting now and continuing in heaven.
